SUGGESTED TOURS

Tour of Chianti Fiorentino

In this day tour, you have the possibility of visit the part of Chianti looking to Florence, driving in charming roads and discovering typical Tuscan landscapes.

The villages that you will meet in your journey are San Donato in Poggio, Badia a Passignano, Montefioralle, Greve in Chianti and Panzano in Chianti.

The entire tour is about 60 km driving: how many hours depends on how many stop will you make during your journey.

How to begin the tour:

Exit the gate of Locanda Le Piazze and take the 800 m gravel road: at the stop turn right on the SP 130. After 6 km turn left and then turn right on Via Etrusca. At the stop left and take SP 76 and SP 101 in direction of SAN DONATO IN POGGIO.

This charming destination is a mediaeval walled village located, like so many Tuscan towns, on a hill ("Poggio"), from which it takes part of its name, and that separates the Val di Pesa from the Val d'Elsa

The medieval layout of the streets and the main piazza are also preserved. Piazza Malaspina is very atmospheric, with an octagonal well and surrounded by the Palazzo Ticci, now known as the Palazzo Malaspina, the church of Santa Maria della Neve and the Palazzo Pretorio. The latter was destroyed during WW II, as were numerous other buildings such as the Porta Senese, but has been reconstructed.

Suggested restaurants:

After 9 km (15 minutes) passing through the village of Sambuca, you will reach BADIA A PASSIGNANO:

Badia a Passignano or the Abbey of Passignano is an historic abbey in the comune of Tavarnelle Val di Pesa.

It dates back to before the year 1049 when a then-ancient abbey was donated to John Gualbert and was restored.

The monastic complex is still enclosed within the 14th century walled courtyard with quadrangular planes with corner towers, but the neo-gothic integrations realized at the end of the nineteenth century, when the monastic community was suppressed, was transformed into a villa. The Latin-style abbey church was almost entirely reconstructed from the second half of the 16th century and internally frescoed by Passignano and Alessandro Allori.

The monastic complex since 1986 has returned to the property of the Vallombrosan monks.

In this little village is situated Osteria di Passignano, the Michelin starred restaurant own by Antinori family.

On the way to Greve in Chianti (8 km of charming road in the Tuscan countryside), you will find the lovely village of MONTEFIORALLE:

The "castello" of Montefioralle is probably one of the most ancient villages in Chianti and is still today enclosed within its original walls. These were initially two circuits but houses now fill the space between the original structures. The walls were octagonal in outline, with four gates, modifications of which still exist.

The enological fame of Montefioralle is secular and it is produced a great wine. To visit: church of S.

Stefano with works of art from 1200 and 1400 and Pieve of S. Cresci, situated outside the walls of the village that is one of the ancient churches of the Chianti.

Continue for 2 km on Via Montefioralle and reach GREVE IN CHIANTI:

Greve in Chianti is named after the river that runs through it. At the end of the Dark Ages, Greve developed on the flat ground of the Greve valley as the market for the fortified villages, castles and farmhouses on the surrounding hilltops.

The original piazza is shown as square in old documents but the construction of buildings, porticoes and loggias has encroached on it over the years so that it is now triangular, pointing to the neoclassical facade of Santa Croce. On one side of the piazza is a statue of the explorer Giovanni da Verrazano who discovered New York Harbour.

For a nice sandwich on the way, we recommend Antica Macelleria Falorni, in the main square Piazza Giacomo Matteotti.

Continue for 8 km on SR 222 arriving in PANZANO IN CHIANTI:

The name of the village of Panzano is of Roman origin but the settlement is older since Etruscan finds have been made in the neighbourhood. The first documentary evidence is 11 C, when the development of the "borgo", the village around the castle, took place. The castle stands on a ridge separating the Val di Greve from the Val di Pesa, exactly halfway between Florence and Sienna, between which it was always a source of contention. The castle is now private, but the courtyard and the surroundings can be visited, and the houses along the downhill road have a mediaeval character. There are some remnants of the old Roman paved roads, the Senice, which are still in use. Panzano's churches are definitely worth a visit: The Church of Santa Maria (Santa Maria Assunta), which stands next to the castle, was completely rebuilt in the XIX century on the site of an ancient church, but it possesses a small XIV century Siennese Madonna and Child attributed to Botticini.

In this town is situated the famous restaurant, Antica Macelleria Cecchini (Via XX Luglio, 055802020), where you can taste the original Tuscan Bistecca.

You have now 13 km driving on the SR 222 to reach Castellina in Chianti and then back on the SP 130 for 7 km to Locanda Le Piazze.

Half day tour in San Gimignano

San Gimignano is certainly very famous: it is a unique city in the world and is known by the name of the “citta’ della torri”. The tower town.

It is only 18 km from our property and can be reached in less than 30 minutes by car.

The fact of being so well known also has a reverse side: the city is always very crowded with tourists as it is definitely one of the places not to be missed while staying in this area.

The uniqueness of San Gimignano arises from the fact that today there are still 13 of the 72 existing medieval towers.

From any direction you come from, San Gimignano and its towers are well visible.

In the Middle Ages, the construction of the tower was a symbol of power and richness, and legend tells that the tallest one belonged to the most powerful family, expressing in this way its economic and political power.

Today, in addition to the 13 towers, the exterior walls and the two access doors to the center of the city are still perfectly preserved: San Giovanni door and San Matteo door.

The road that connects the two doors is the heart of the city: You will find wonderful shops of craftsmen who produce ferns, crockery, ironworks, alabaster objects (an ornamental stone worked in the nearby town of Volterra).

Not to be missed:

Shops where you can buy local gourmet product as well as the precious and refined saffron "Zafferano di San Gimignano"

-The famous white wine "Vernaccia di San Gimignano": the only Tuscan white "DOCG" (Denominazione di origine controllata e garantita – a rare pearl hidden in the hills of this region, always associated with great red wines.

A unique ice cream at Dondoli'; the ice cream shop is located in Piazza della Cisterna, and it is worldwide famous; for two consecutive years the best ice cream in the world.

A unique taste? "Nocciolone" which literally means "Big Nut" - attention to allergies!!!

Where to eat:

For a quick lunch:

Trattoria Chiribiri, small restaurant near Porta San Giovanni, always crowded because the cuisine is great.

Do it differently and admire San Gimignano from another perspective: private flight by helicopter

Do not miss out the heart- Beating horse race of Siena:

The Palio is a medieval horse race run around the Piazza del Campo twice each year, July 2nd and August 16th.

Siena is divided in 17 districts, called Contrade, each of them is represented by an animal and they have their own boundary and distinct identity. Over the centuries rivalries and alliances were formed among Contradas and it is very fundamental during the race.

Only 10 Contradas take part to the race, the seven ones that do not participate, they will race automatically the year after. The three missing Contradas are randomly picked from the Mayor of Siena about one month before the race.

This tradition lasts four days. During the morning of the first day, each Contrada is randomly assigned to a horse that can be a slow or a fast horse. In the following days there are two practices per day (morning and evening) until it arrives the race day, the Palio day.

Obviously, horses do not run-on stone but they run in a path covered by a special dirt called tufo.

For Senese people horses are sacred and they are treated with care and love.

Before the race, it takes place an historical parade where all 17 Contradas show their colours, costumes and flags. When the parade is over, the 10 Contradas take position at the starting line, called canape. The position of each Contrada at the canape is randomly picked by the Mayor and it can be decisive for the race. Nine Contradas are aligned behind the canape while the last one stays behind them and decides the start of the race.

Who arrives first after three laps around the square wins a painted banner, called Drappellone, representing an image of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

For the Senese people the Palio is not only a 4-days festivity but it is something deeper. It is an all year long lifestyle and each member of the Contradas activity participates to the district' s life. It is difficult to explain what Contrada members feel during the Palio days, it is an unic mixture of joy, passion and pain that none outside can understand.

We highly suggest you to discover this fantastic wonder in order to appreciate this tradition and try to understand the Seneses passion.

Volterra, in 1 DAY TOUR

Situated in enchanting scenery, Volterra is an ancient medieval village that conserves its 3000 years old of story. An elegant mix between Etruscan, Roman and Renaissance culture will carry you in the past, just walking around its imposing walls.

If Volterra is now so famous, we have to thank the writer Stephanie Meye and her “Twilight Saga”. Thanks to her, Volterra has millions of tourists each year, even if no vampires live in this village. 😊

We can Start the Tour entering from “Porta a Selci” to admir one of the 8 Medieval entrance.

In few minutes you will find yourself in one of the most beautiful Italian square, which until 10 years ago, only knew by alternative tourists; we are talking about “Piazza dei Priori”, where it is possible to admire “Palazzo Comunale” with its coats of arms of the most powerful Florentine families,”Palazzo Pretorio” and “Torre del Porcellino”.

Close “Piazza dei Priori” is situated “Piazza San Giovanni” with its cathedral, built in 1120. A classic style, distinguish the church from the others.

To have a better knowledge of Volterra, important is “Battistero di San Giovanni”. The baptistery (XIII sec.) holds many artworks since the year 1500 to year 1750.

While you lost yourself between Volterra’s street, do no forget to visit the “Teatro Romano”. Built during Augusto’s period. The area became for centuries a waste disposal site until the 1950. In this year is started the project to bring to light the theatre. Today, it is became an archeological and proteted area.
